Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881. Sec. 139. Meaning of Local Area.

- The Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, applies to the whole of the Indian Dominion. "Local area" means an area smaller than the entire estate or country as a whole (see 39 I.C.835). "Local area" in section 139 of the Negotiable Instruments Act may therefore extend to the whole Province.

Indian Oaths

1873 section 4.

R.L.A's opinion No. 1462 dated 8.7.49

Office of the R.L.A.

Section 4 of the Indian Oaths Act, 1873 is the only provision whereunder Mr. T.S.Nargundkar can be authorised to administer by himself oath and affirmations in the discharge of his duties as a notary public provided he has by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence. Mr.T.S. Nargundkar who has been appointed a notary public under section 139 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 is not authorised to receive evidence; the question of his authorisation to administer oaths and affirmations would not thus arise. It does not also appear that such authorisation is necessary for the discharge of his functions as a Notary Public. Inquiries may, if necessary, be made from Mr. Nargundkar why he wants the authorisation.
